Obs: "School bus size cornices over Easterly portions of Lionhead Ridge. It is hard to tell from the photo, but the largest cornices were about 20-25' tall. We dug a few pits on East Facing slopes between 9,000-9,500 ft with the worst result being an ECTN-21 however these Cornices are primed and ready to fall with the abundant sunshine and warming weather." Photo: JR

Advisory Region
Lionhead Range
Longitude
-111.32W
Latitude

44.72N

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Forecast for Tue Mar 24, 2020
Lionhead Range, 2020-03-23