

From obs: "On Sunday morning, the sun broke through for a bit and allowed us to view the widespread avalanche cycle that occurred overnight on all aspects. Across the creek, we saw a large crown (approx 3' in depth) in the meadows.

An avalanche that occurred on Nemesis's south face ran from mid-mountain all the way into Hellroaring Creek, running over our old skin track." Photo: Eric and Melissa

Advisory Region

Island Park

Longitude

-111.48W

Latitude

44.55N

Avalanche Details: Natural slides on all aspects of Nemesis Mountain

Island Park, 2023-04-04